Leon R. Fitzgerald, about twenty-five years old, who is amployed by a butcher in the Northern Liberty Market, was released on his personal bonds after having a hearing before Judge Bundy of the Police Court this morning on a charge of disorderly con-

Bicycle Policeman Mudd told the court that Fitzgerald was intoxicated last night and was ejected from a lunch room near the corner of 2d street and Pennsylvania avenue northwest. The defendant, the offi-cer declared, was profane and abusive.

Fitzgerald denied that he was intoxicated or had indulged in the conduct described by the officer.

Could Not Remember.

Walter Hill was in court this morning on complaint of Mrs. Nellie Voorhees of the Homeward Bound Mission, located near the corner of 41/2 street and Missouri avenue. Hill was charged with disorderly conduct. Mrs. Voorhees testified that Hill, who was intoxicated, came into a room at the mission last night when religious exercises

Bazaar of the Holidays.

The members of Dorcas Rebekah Lodge, No. 4, I. O. O. F., are making arrangements for a "bazaar of the holidays," to be held on December 15, 16 and 17, in Northeast Temple, 12th and H streets northeast. The eight booths which will comprise the bazaar will be called New Year day, Washington's birthday, Easter, 30th of May, 4th of July, Labor day, Thanksgiving day and Christmas, and as each booth will be attended by ladies in costume suitable to the day it is expected that the hall will present a very attractive appearance.

The Labor day booth will be unique in that it will contain everything necessary for the housekeeper and housecleaner The Easter booth will contain fancy articles of every description, while the Thanksgiv-ing booth will be one large display of edi-bles and will also serve supper each even-ing. The Christmas booth will have a Santa Claus to dispense the sweets, dolls and toys, and New Year day and Washington's birthday booths will be ready to sell stationery, books, calendars, bric-a-brac, oil paintings, etc.

It is Said That Vessels of Twenty-Four Feet Draft May Come Up the River.

For several years past, ever since the cruiser Dixie went ashore in the Potomac near Clifton Beach, the naval authorities have been fearful of allowing any of the deeper draft vessels to come up the river to this city to take part in the public celebrations, and only the small vessels were ordered here. Until this year there was perhaps some ground for fear. Now, however, the larger vessels can come up the river without danger, as a wide channel, twenty-four feet and in some places twenty-five feet deep, exists from Alexandria to the capes of the Chesapeake.

There are on the Potomac numbers of pilots who would give bond to bring a vessel drawing twenty-four feet of water safely up the river without her keel touching bottom.

The river men will bring these facts to the attention of the Navy Department, as the action of the department in not allowing the large vessels to come to this city

Our monthly statement for October of this year showed: Assets, $2,353,359.39. Liabilities, $2,237.431.55. Surplus, $115,927.84.

All advances are secured by first deed of trust on desirably located real estate, inside the Disetrict of Columbia. We make building loans and charge interest only as the money is used, and not on the whole advance until it is all taken, thus saving considerable during the construction. In addition to the interest on the loan we require such payments on the advances as are convenient for the member to pay in reduction of the debt.

We pay 4 per cent per annum, Payable quarterly. We take any amount from $1.00 to $5,000 from any one member. Although we can require a notice for money to be withdrawn, ordinarily we pay on demand. Active business counts are not desired, but we allow a member to withdraw money once or twice monthly. We cannot impress too strongly on the citizens
